Av 5777

Dear Student and Parent,

Academies at Gerrard Berman Day School and the George and Arline Haar Middle School stand for both academic excellence and ethical and moral principles of Conservative Judaism.

We urge all of our students to take personal responsibility for their academic achievement as well as for their appearance and behavior.

Please read the enclosed Handbook. Discipline and dress code compliance are of utmost importance and they need to be reviewed carefully. The Board of Trustees and the School Administration firmly believe that students' appearance and behavior directly reflect on academic achievement and prepare students for conducive and productive citizenship.

We request that students and parents in grades 1 through 8 carefully read the Handbook together and submit a signed confirmation to the school by September 1, 2017.

Confirmation of School Policies

We, the undersigned, have read and discussed the contents of the enclosed handbook.
We are familiar with school policies and requirements
